

Name: _____

PARTS OF SPEECH REVIEW

I. NOUNS:

- A. Nouns are used as: 1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____
4. _____ 5. _____

II. PRONOUNS:

III. VERBS:

A. ACTION

B. LINKING

IV. ADJECTIVES:

- A. modify or describe:
B. answer the questions:
C. words that are always adjectives:

V. ADVERBS:

- A. modify or describe:
B. answers the questions:
C. words that are always adverbs:

VI. CONJUNCTIONS:

Common conjunctions:

VII. PREPOSITIONS:

Examples:

VIII. INTERJECTIONS:

1. I moved forward.
2. I stepped here.
3. Did you go there?
4. I moved immediately.
5. Sleep later
6. Did you go daily?
7. I gladly moved
8. Sleep well.
9. Did you go quietly?
10. I barely moved.
11. She scarcely sleeps.
12. Did you go far?
13. Ruth is an unusually good goalie.
14. During the burglary our dog stayed strangely silent.
15. Roy is always hungry.
16. Roy is almost always hungry.
17. They had met before.
18. They had met long before.
19. She saw it recently.
20. She saw it rather recently.
21. Changes in our economy have occurred somewhat rapidly.
22. Cancer research has advanced rather dramatically in the last few years.
23. To our surprise, Father took the news quite calmly.
24. She always completely rewrites the first draft of her novels.
25. Arguments on both sides were most cleverly presented.
26. Hurricanes and earthquakes are two kinds of natural disasters.
27. Their hero of the novel and a student in my class have similar personalities.
28. Venus, Juno and Minerva were three Roman goddesses.
29. Into the room swept Queen Bess and her companion.
30. Both poets and royalty are buried in Westminster Abbey.
31. Arthur and Lewis are studying.
32. We live and learn.
33. Students and teachers shouted and waived.
34. They were screaming and crying.
35. Both Miram and Ernest can not only sing but also dance.
36. Our new sofa has not arrived
37. That extremely lazy dog almost never barks.
38. Tomorrow Charlotte and her mother will write or will telephone.
39. The French and German dancers twirled rapidly and extremely gracefully.
40. Each boy listened attentively.
41. Do not leave now.
42. The scouts arose very early.
43. An extremely interesting book nearly always sells.

The big airliner landed safely and quite smoothly.
Shrews are tiny creatures.

46. Shrews are tiny.
47. Her aunt has become rich and famous.
48. They sell bicycles and sleds.
49. Randy tossed Elmer an apple.
50. Ray gave the dogs and cats some hamburger.
51. The traitor sold the enemy important secrets.
52. Mr. Tseng gave the team and the fans a memorable lesson.
53. Who will lend us a tent and a canoe?
54. Karen gave us a confident wave.
55. The storekeeper paid the other employees and me our wages and a bonus.

